GRIDMEN SUPPORT 20-4-1 RECORD

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y That's the Wilson battle cry! All in all, it was victory for our mighty Bulldog football teams, the Junior high, the Junior Varsity, and the Varsity.

The Junior High squad composed of hard working 9th graders captured the Junior High championship. Mr. Harold Miller and Mr. William Firing coached the boys to a 5-0-1 season.

The Junior Varsity squad, under the supervision of Mr. William Morgan and Mr. Dallas Zieber, ended their season with a winning record of 8-1. The experience these two teams has yielded gives a rather auspicious outlook for next year. Hopefully, they can equal or surpass the '72 Varsity's fine record of 7-3-1.

The hottest day of the year, August 21, was the beginning of the 1972 Wilson Bulldog Football team. The team was red hot with spirit and the Seniors were ready to make this year the best!! After five quick wins, the Bulldogs were hoping for an undefeated season, but three tough losses gave them a final record of 7-3-1. Six of the Seniors managed to gain a berth on the All-Star Team. As the year passes, Coaches John Gurski, Bernie Stoppi, John Stopper, Bert Nye, William Morgan and Dallas Zieber will miss this year's Seniors: Bruce Harbach, Tom Stamm, Bill Biffel, Bill Foster, Don Stewart, Jim Starnes, Todd Ebling, Bob Kondrath, Mike Sensenig, Paul Brooks, Rich Raber, Steve Hassler, Woody Barnett, Craig Long, Jack Keegan, John Federowicz, Paul Kreitz, Mike Hannis, Tim Stupak, Tom Earhart, Mitch Hettinger, Jay Vaughn, and Dave Weaver.

THREE GIRLS ON ALL-STAR HOCKEY TEAM

To get in shape for the strenuous '72 hockey season, the girls started by attending the Tipana Hockey Camp. Shortly after returning, the season began.

This year's schedule was one of the hardest Wilson hockey players have ever faced. They started by tying Muhlenberg and beating Mifflin for the first time since 1964; however, victory was not a stable commodity.

Even though the season wasn't a great success, three girls was selected for the All-Star team—Rita DaDamio, Lisa Kadilak and Pam Waelchli. Rita was also selected as the Most Valuable Player. The coaches for the team were Mrs. Linda Davis and Mrs. Concetta Perlacki.

BOOTERS BUILD MOMENTUM

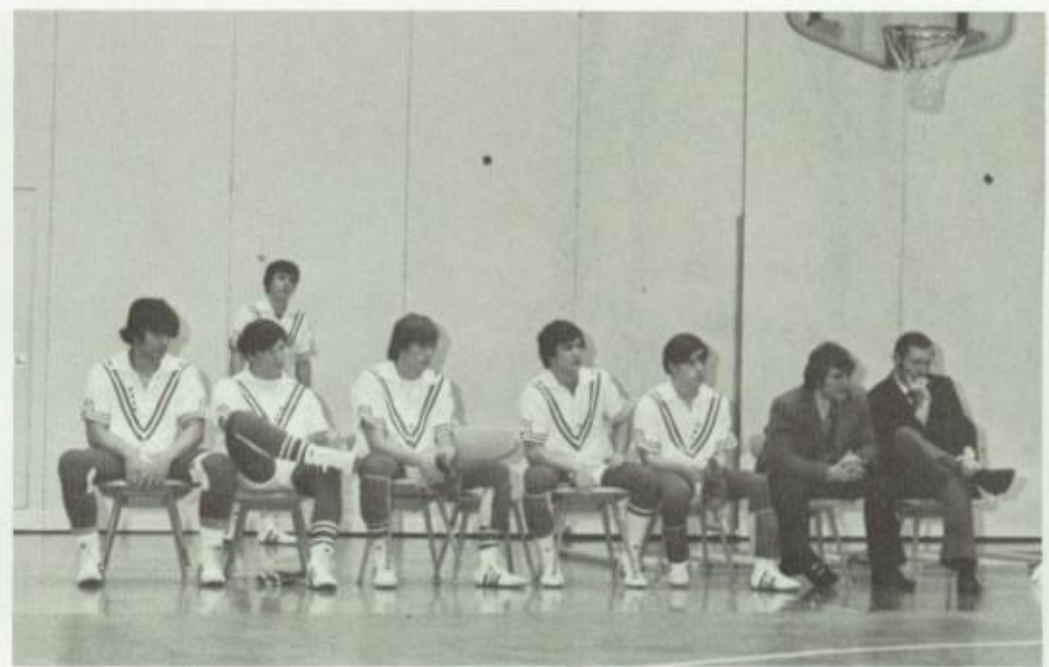

This year's team was characterized by a lack of experience. No seniors were on the squad as an effort was made to give the underclassmen experience. The starting line up usually had two or three freshmen, four sophomores and the remainder were juniors. The lack of maturity and experience had its effect on the record this past year. However, next year this team with all its personnel returning should be competitive with any team in the country. This year's team can best be summarized as having an excellent attitude, tremendous desire to learn, and an eager desire to be the "big boys on the block" next year. Mr. Robert Bright was the coach.

HARRIERS HASSLE OPPONENTS

Although the record was not too impressive, Wilson Cross Country Coach, Grant Mahon does have a good squad of eager young men returning next year to put some pressure on the other Berks County teams. Some of these men are Sophomores Mike Dirks, Jeff Vanino, and Jay Wilkinson. Mike already had the distinction of having the best record of any man on the squad this year.

Roll him over

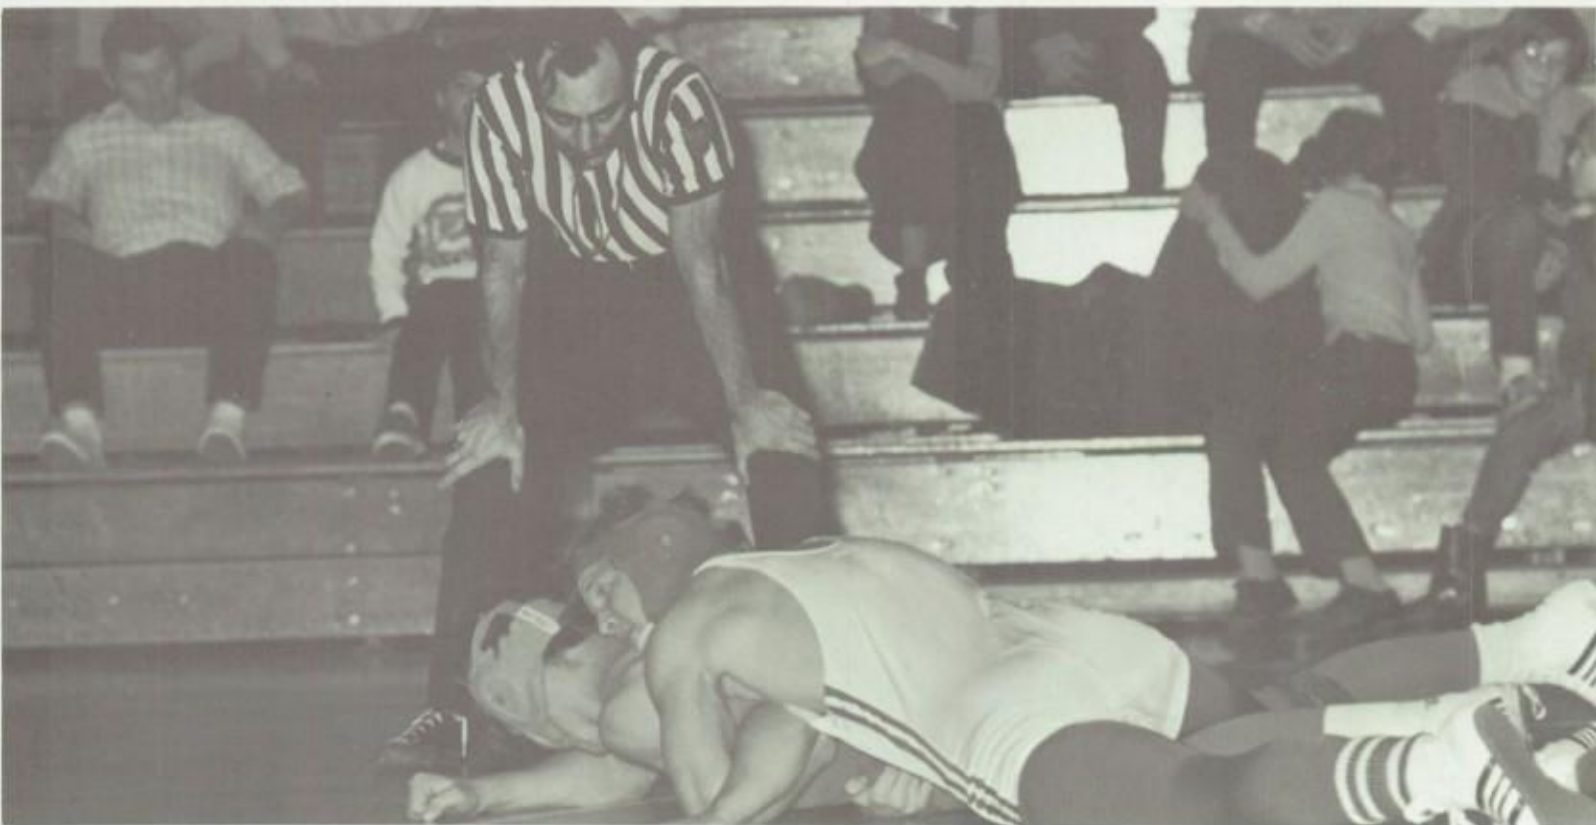

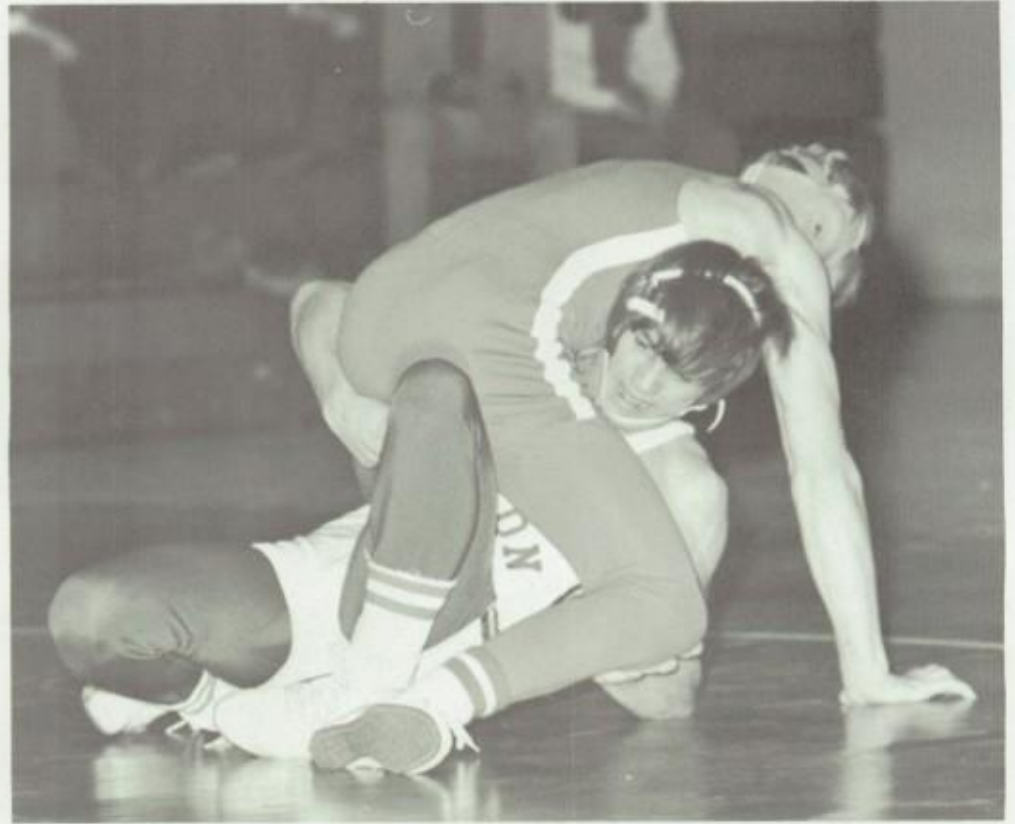

The team waits anxiously.

Although their season was short, the girls made the most of it ending with a 6-0 record. The free-style relay team of Laila Eways, Nancy Bowman, Linda Kazmierczak and Marianne Sommerville participated in the state meet at Penn State.

HOOPSTERS CONQUER COURT

Though not showing its best record in five years, Wilson basketball has come a long way due to the never ceasing effort of head coach Mr. Reggie Weiss and his assistant Mr. William Hoffman. The team, led by seniors Ralph Brown, Dave Owens, Mitch Hettinger, and Bruce Harbach, managed to take what could have been a disaster and create a respectable record of 8-9. The J.V. team, coached by Mr. Hoffman, gives basketball fans assurance of a good team next year. The assurance is in the form of the Berks County J.V. championship.

The girls' team, coached by Mrs. Linda Davis managed to break even for the year with a 5-5 record. With only two seniors on the team, Laila Eways and Mandy Sherman, and the leading scorer only a sophomore, Debbie Niles, it looks as though Wilson might have two county champs next year.

GRAPPLERS GRAB SECOND PLACE

Paced by seniors Mike Sensenig and Bob Langdon, the Wilson High Grapplers captured second place in the Berks County Wrestling League. Only the elusive Mifflin stood between them and first place. Coach William Moyer and his assistant Dallas Zieber hope that enthusiasm the experience gained by the sophomores and juniors on the squad can lead to a championship team next year. Other seniors on the squad were Tom Earhart, Bernie Behrenhausen and Jim Starnes.

The Junior High team also completed a successful season losing only one match to Schuylkill Valley and winning the remaining six.

KEGLERS TAKE FOURTH AND FIRST

Both of the Wilson Bowling teams managed to have excellent seasons. The boys' team coached by Mr. Norman Hopp, broke two Berks County scoring records within the first three matches and spilled 1,042 for the high series. The seniors on the team were John Nicholas, Woody Barnett, and Barry Greth. Nicholas also broke the high individual triple with a 640.

The new dimension on the sports scene was girls' bowling. Previously only an intramural sport, girls bowling became an addition to the varsity sports schedule in '72. Miss Susan Leinbach was the coach and the team consisted of Cindy Babb, Jean Kelley, Pat Shoffner, Kathy Bready, Jane Robinson, Sue Wentzel, Diane Zellers and the scorekeeper Kathy Szymanski.

SWIM TEAMS SWIM TO SUCCESS

Anchored by District III diving champ, George Gyomber, the Wilson High Swim Team upped its record to 10-2 high enough to tie for second place with York and Manheim Township. Other seniors were Sid Burkot, Bruce Ravel, Jay Sparr, Steve LeSage, Todd Ebling, Paul Kreitz and Mike Burke. Sparr, Ravel, Burkot and junior Tom Ravel, teamed up to beat the old school record in the 200 yard medley with a time of 1:45.9. The team was coached by Mr. Roy Snyder and Mr. Robert Bright.

The girls' team, under the direction of Mrs. Nan VanFleet, also were very successful in their abbreviated season, finishing with an unblemished record.

Activities

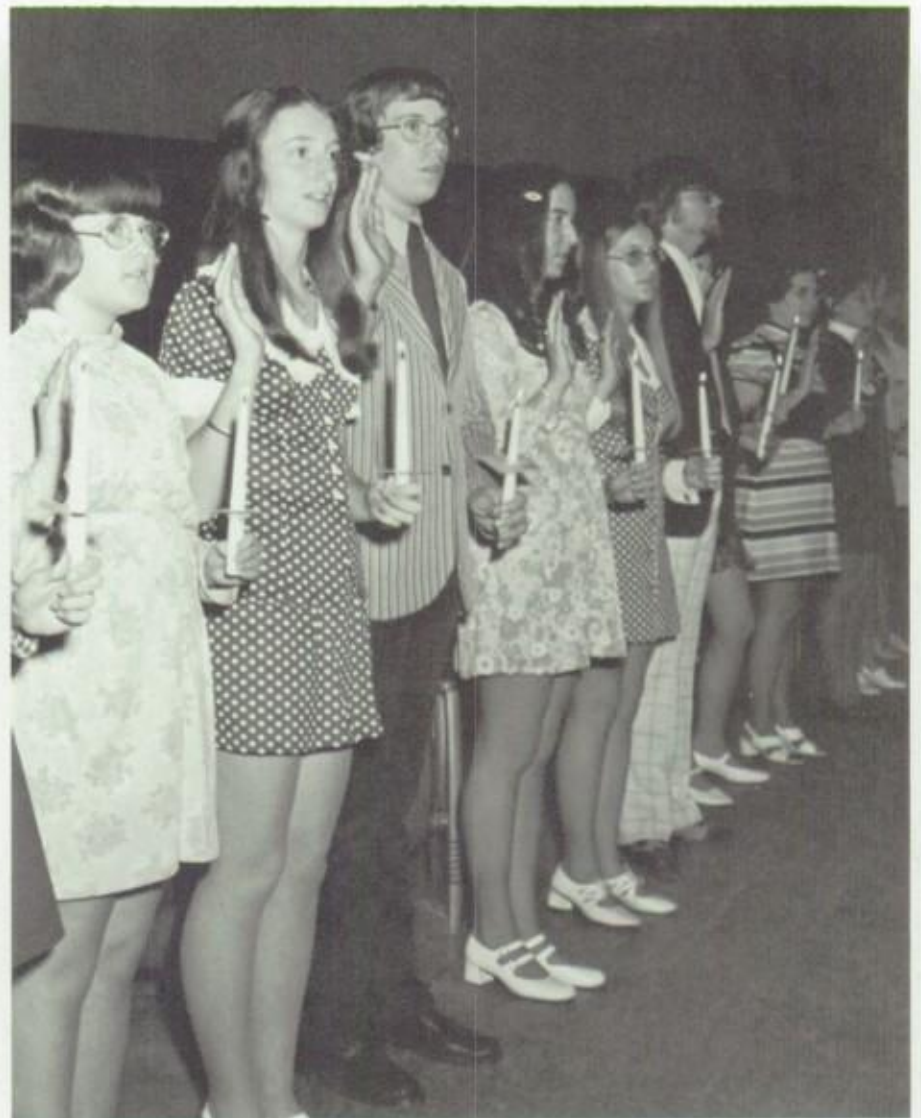

STUDENT

This years Student Council officers were Peggy Robinson-secretary/treasurer, Fritz Wenrich-vice president and Mark Ruckman-president. A big project was the student store which sold candy, tapes and crafts.

GOVERNMENT

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

New members to the society were Seniors: H. Albert, P. Coen, M. Fenstermacher, P. Gilles, G. Gyomber, S. Hassler, S. Hayes, M. Killian, B. Kirkhoff, A. Klein, C. Long, L. O'Rourke, J. Plymyer, M. Ruckman, D. Schaeffer, S. Schloder, K. Szymanski, M. Wartluft. Juniors: M. Barth, D. Breckle, V. Brightbill, D. Casamassa, M. Coleman, D. Degler, C. Dennis, L. Eaches, R. Fix, S. Fossi, L. Heck, C. Hoppman, L. Kazmierczak, J. Klump, R. Kratz, S. Lewis, H. Margolis, P. Miller, R. Miller, M. Napolitano, C. Naylor, R. Osenbach, T. Pascoe, J. Planer, K. Prestwood, D. Quade, M. Saeger, J. Sallade, D. Scholl, C. Schwartz, D. Spadafora, G. Stump, J. Williamson, R. Woomer, L. Yoder, and B. Zerbe.

Assemblies this year were few and far between. The choral presentation by Wilson was highlighted by Ray Linn relinquishing the football trophy back to where it belongs. The Mifflin assembly was accented by its versions of "Hi Wilson," and "Mountain Dew."

ASSEMBLIES

PEP RALLIES

The cheerleaders sponsored four pep rallies during the 1972 football season. As a prelude to the game, the students tried hard to psych up the team.

Mike enjoys an egg shampoo during football season.

SITTING—L. Heck, M. Grunewald. STANDING—B. Behrenhausen, G. Stump, A. Klein.

The guru, Terry Allushuski, is escorted by two of his faithful servants before he plays with his pet snake at this years band concert.

BAND

Band practice consisted of marching by the light of fire engines, learning formations in the snow, seven o'clock practices and practices on days off from school. Of course, practice makes perfect!

Frank J. Ferraro

Twirling corps co-captains: Shelly Wentzel and Mary Ann Bielski.

On April 11-13 the Wilson Concert Band, Bandfront, Stage Band and Select Chorus presented the ninth annual performance, "Fanfare for Peace". This years concert included music styles from the classics and Latin America to marches and rock. The band was directed by Mr. Frank J. Ferraro and the choreography was handled by Mrs. Ferraro.

Simon says you are a sugar plum fairy.

CHORUS

The 1972-73 chorus presenting their concert "With a Smile and a Song"

Director—Paul P. Lechner

Is that a smile?

Star soloist, Laurie Youtz

Twenty-one members of the Wilson were selected to participate in a seventeen school County Chorus. Those selected were Laurie Youtz, Kathy Bready, Diane Ziemba, Betsey Zerbe, Beverly Prestwood, Debbie Ebersole, Jill Schwenk, Carol Christman, Diane Schaeffer, Susan Rudolph, Bonnie Freeman, Carolyn Rudolph, Vicky Kalbach, John Sallade, Mark Entzminger, Debbie DeGeorge, Robert Filer, Christopher Hershman, Tim Wetzel and William Sheeler.

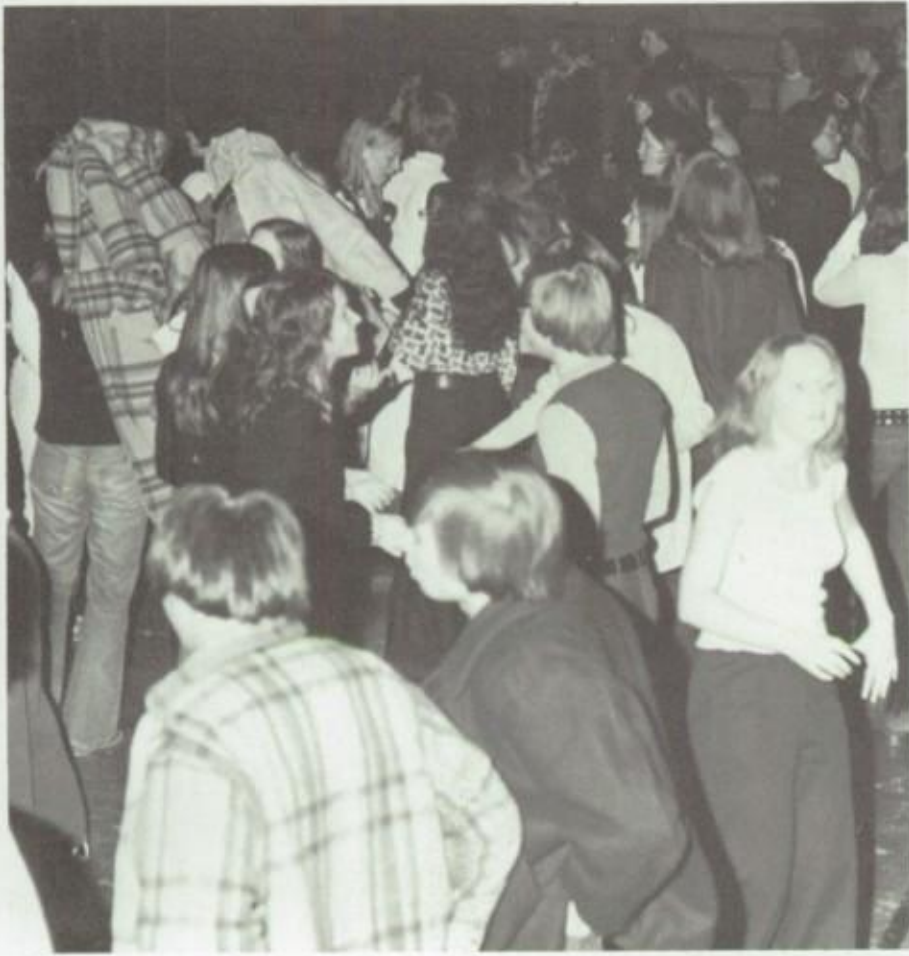

FIELD TRIPS

During the week of April 19-29, many students journeyed to Europe. Groups visiting France, Germany and Spain visited many sites and had a better opportunity to use their language skills. This educational trip was highlighted by the French Riviera, the Berlin wall and a Spanish bullfight. The teacher chaperones included Madame Fisher, Herr Double, Herr Leininger and Senora Kovary.

DANCES

Because of the financial problems encountered in having dances, only a few dances were held at Wilson this year; however, "Faith" and "Macbeth" did give a few Wilson students and their guests something to dance to.

A "bed" scene in the Senior Play?

THE CRUCIBLE

Cast for the play is as follows: Betty Parris—Cindy Coulston; Rev. Samuel Parris—Chris Hershman; Tituba—Nadine Edris; Abigail Williams—Meg Gibson; Susanna Walcott—Pat Burkey; Mrs. Ann Putnam—Barb Napolitano; Thomas Putnam—Mark Fenstermacher; Mercy Lewis—Karen Darlak; Mary Warren—Miriam Hein; John Proctor—John Gudikunst; Francis Jurse—Mark Dragon; Ezekial Cheever—Ted Berger; John Williard—Don King; Giles Corvey—Bob Fisher; Rebecca Nurse—Beth Kirkhoff; Rev. John Hale—John Schaum; Elizabeth Proctor—Mary Sue Killian; Judge Hathorne—Mike Davies; Deputy-Governor Danforth—Pat Martin; Sarah Good—Cynthia Coulston; Hopkins—Daryll Eisenberg

Despite several cases of the flu, the Senior play was presented on November 17 and 21. Arthur Miller's, "The Crucible", was chosen by directors Allen Clay and John Goss. "The Crucible" had a Puritan setting with normal people driven by hysteria into a mad witch hunt that ended in the deaths of many innocent people. Written during the Senator McCarthy era, the play left the viewers with the message—not to let reason give way to superstitious fears.

A Jewish Pilgrim?

FACULTY PLAY

I love men with hairy chests! These words spoken by Mrs. April Richards about her "hard" working husband portrayed by Mr. John Dallas depicted the tone of the faculty play presented on March 30 and 31. In addition to Mrs. Richards and Mr. Dallas, other members of the faculty in the cast were Mrs. Margaret Behm, Mr. Daniel Leininger, Mr. Allen Clay, Miss Joanne Crone, Miss Kathleen Noecker, Mrs. Anna Chase, Miss Susan Hohl, Mrs. Ruth Hannigan, and Mr. Robert Weirich. The play was an old fashioned "melodramar" complete with boos and hisses.

"I live with THE CURSE OF AN ACHING HEART."

Presented on February 2, "Cracked Nuts" dealt with the problems of two teenage girls, Penny and Ginger Nutt, who thinking their aunt, Miss Drusilla Nutt, is leaving them alone decide to rent out rooms to their boyfriends, Pete and Billy Beamish, and their uncle Professor Beamish. To confuse matters De Weeses, Miss Drusilla's future husband, and Magnolia Langsford, a fortune-hunting female now hunting Professor Beamish, also show up. Not to mention an escaped octopus, but I said that I wouldn't mention him.

STUDENT PLAY

The FBLA, under the supervision of Mrs. R. Hannigan, made money this year selling stationery and holding a cake sale. They attended a conference in September at Boyertown where they were taught the mechanics of the business world. With the money the FBLA accumulated, each member received a dinner at The Spring House.

This year the Mask and Dagger club planned, staged, directed and performed, with the assistance of its advisor, Mr. Clay, its annual February production, CRACKED NUTS. Officers were Christopher Hershman—president, Mike Wise—vice president, Heidi Arruda—secretary and Kim Moyer—treasurer.

The Human Relation Club went to the Northwest elementary school and observed the students and teachers. Then they bought mittens for the children which were given through the guidance counselors. Two club members went to the Children's Home in Reading to observe the children. The whole club helped in the preparation of a Valentine party at the Home. They had games and served refreshments to the children. Before Easter, they held an Easter egg hunt at the Retarded Center in West Wyomissing. The Human Relation Club received a plaque from the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Gamma Chapter, which was presented for the outstanding community work of the club. Funds were earned by selling dounuts after school. Club advisor was Mrs. A. Richards.

The chess club was under the direction of Mr. Manhart. The club held their first chess tournament this year and hopes this will become tradition.

The stage crew provided a working crew for all non-video productions taking place in the school. The members worked plays, concerts, movies, sports events, assemblies and other important jobs. Captain in charge of lighting—Paul Sheeler, captain in charge of staging and sound—Steve Bezner and secretary/treasurer—Patrick Martin. Mr. George Griesemer was in charge of the group.

This year the ski club consisted of 76 members. They skied Thursday nights at Big Valley Ski Area, Kempton, Pa. from 6 to 10 p.m. The skiers traveled in car pools. Conditions were generally fair; however, most of the snow was man-made.

The T.V. Crew was under the direction of Mr. Dallas. It consisted of mostly underclassmen but, these students were very important to the visual aids at Wilson. Duties ranged from distributing films to copying shows from the T.V.

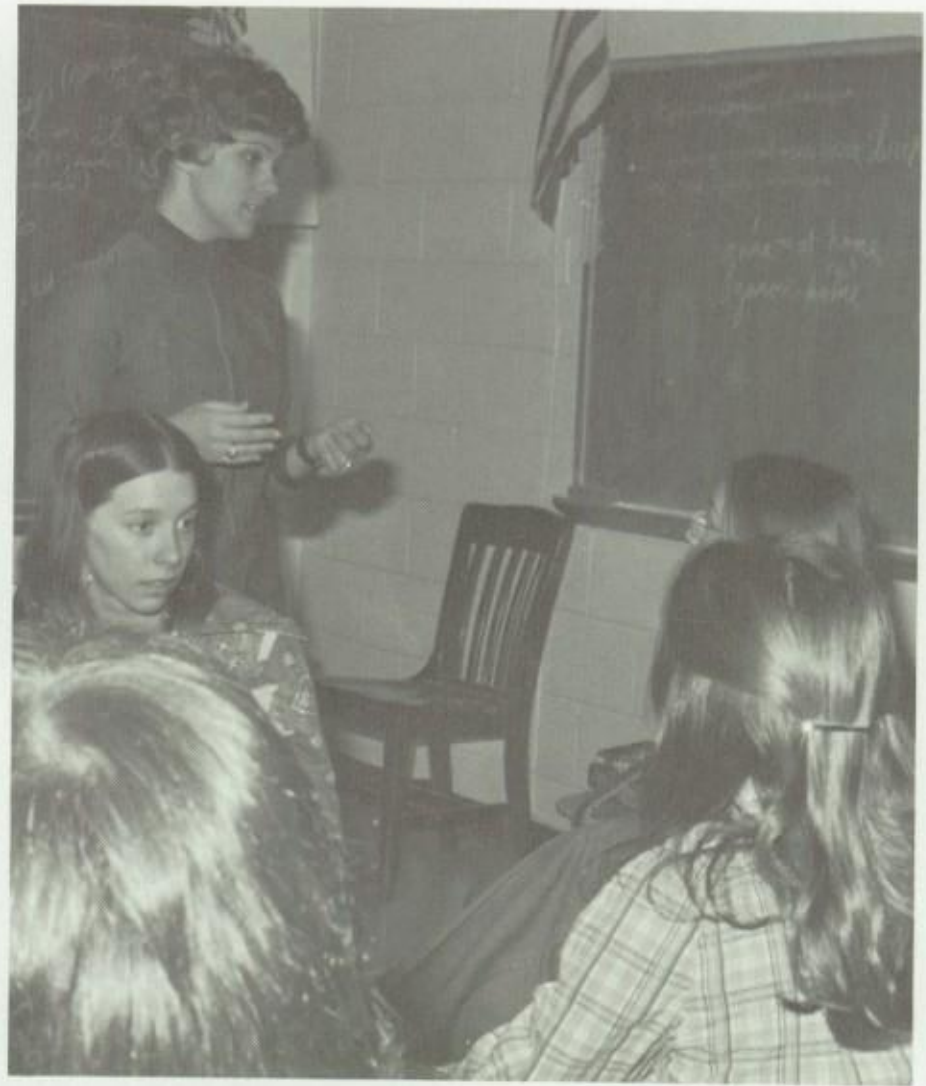

Officers in the ski club were (L. to R.) Scott Perfetto—vice president, Meg Gibson—secretary/treasurer, and Greg Tietbohl—president.

Des Pensee contains expressed forms of creativity in poetry, essay or story. Each member must pick out the good works from the bad and make several copies for printing.

Mrs. M. Behm is the advisor for the Des Pensee magazine. It is edited by the members of Honors English yet it may contain material from anyone in grades seven through twelve.

The intercom announcers had an interesting job reading the different announcements even though the student body never listened. Their most famous line was, "And today's menu is . . ."

The Senior Aquatic Leaders assisted Mr. Snyder at the pool; they are: FIRST ROW—M. Gibson, R. DaDamio. SECOND ROW—P. Niles, L. Kadilak, P. Burkey, C. Ehst, B. Gehman, C. Woods. THIRD ROW—J. Spaar, M. Grunewald, C. Babb, A. French, M. Burke. FOURTH ROW—S. Kehres, Mr. Snyder, T. Ebling.

Members of the Model U.N. Club are L TO R—C. Dennis, B. Napolitano, S. Hayes, A. Gumpfer, N. Cardinal, D. Cassamassa.

One of the most famous Wilson landmarks-THE CAVE

The organization of the Fritztown Drag Team was started by Mr. Paul Kreitz. Active members are (FRONT) R. Hurlbrink, D. Owens, D. Clemens, G. Snyder, B. Biffel, (BACK) P. Kreitz, B. Harbach, D. Stewart, D. Blimline, K. Bragg, S. Burkot, J. Bean, J. Goss and M. Briner.

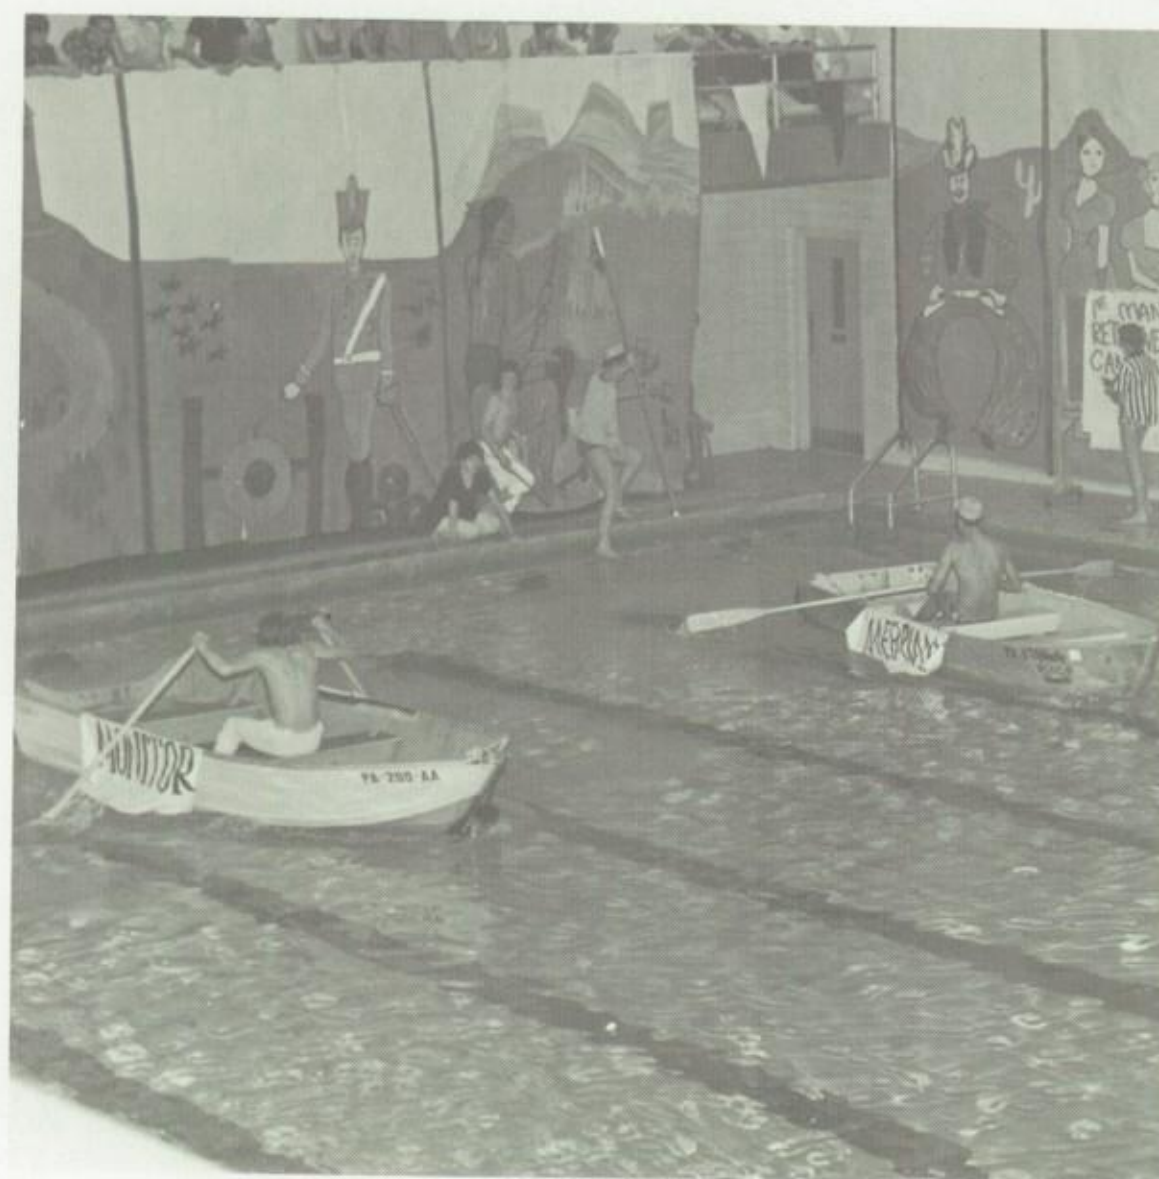

A SPLASH IN TIME

The 1973 Aquatic Leaders sponsored "A Splash in Time". On the nights of May 10, 11 and 12 the pool was transformed into a mechanical time machine. Many girls spent after school hours preparing thirteen synchronized routines. The event was under the direction of Mr. R. Snyder, Mrs. L. Davis and Mrs. N. Van Fleet. The scenery supervisor was Bonnie Billman.

The special event of the evening was the inner tube water polo match, the Wilson Swim Team vs. the Wilson Faculty. The swim team took complete control of the situation by winning all three nights. Other special acts were presented featuring George Gyomber and the DaDamio sisters.

SPECTATOR

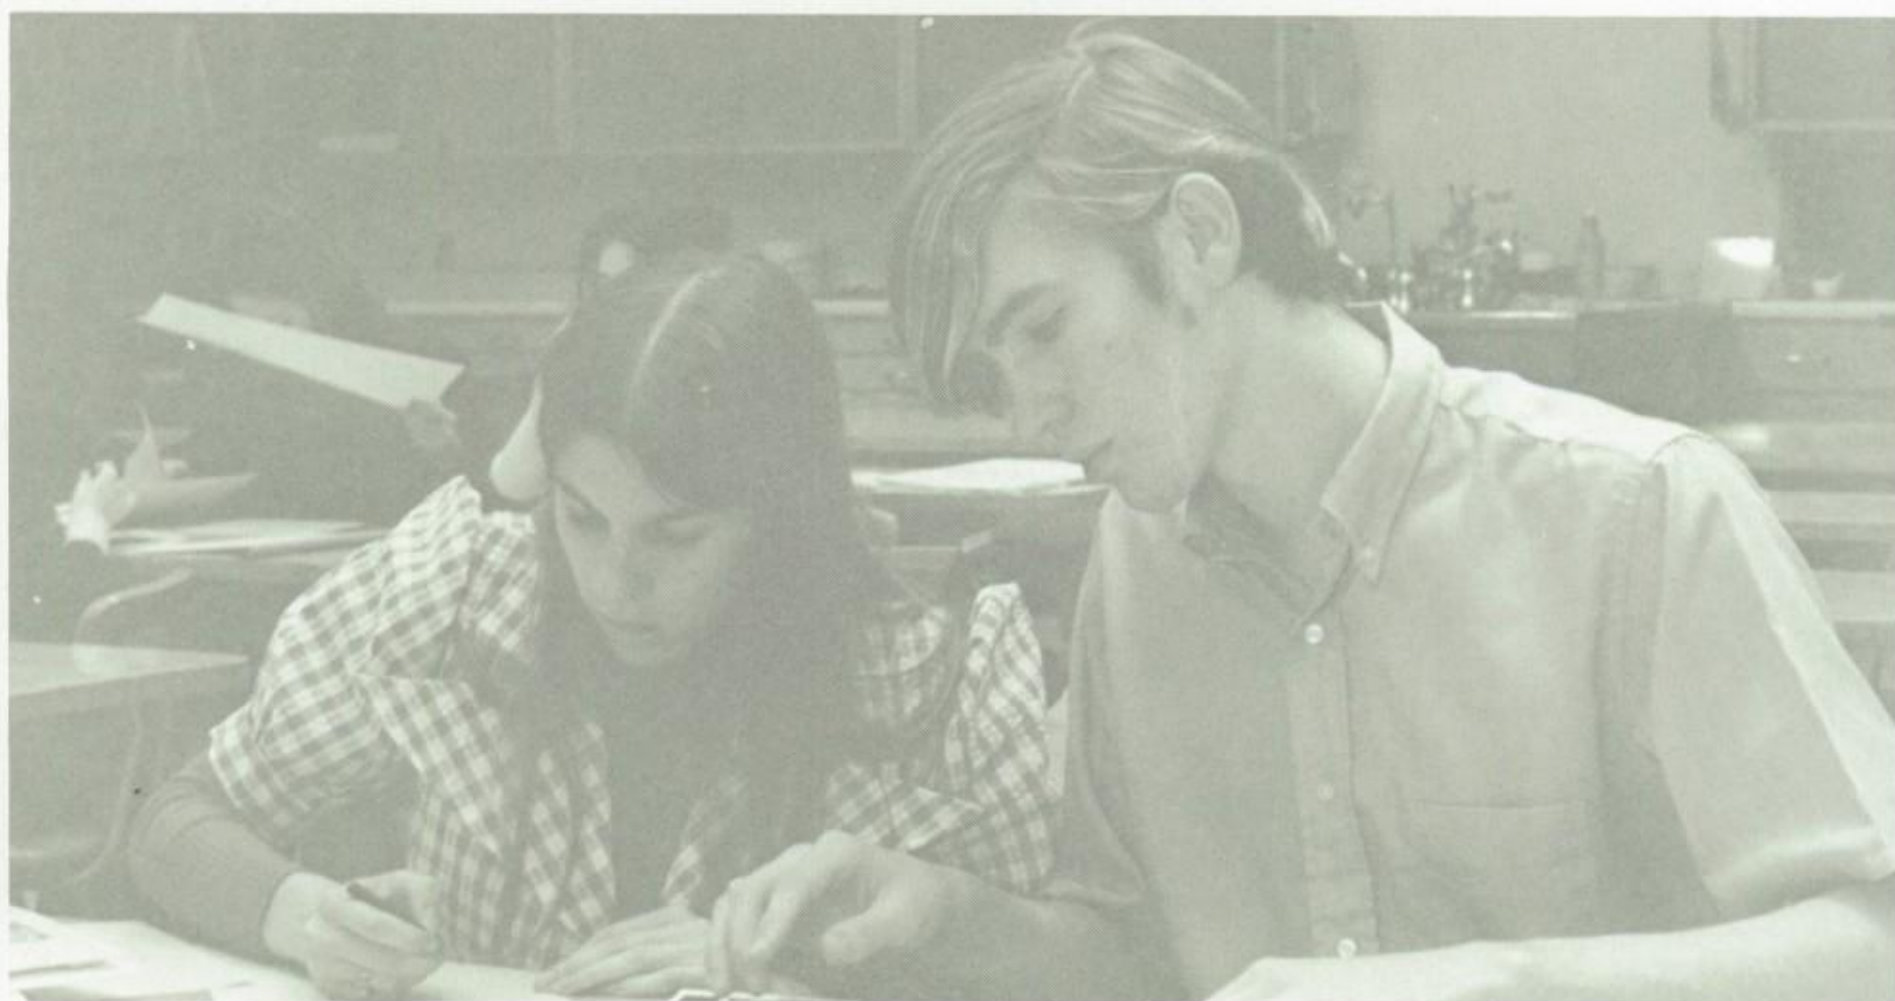

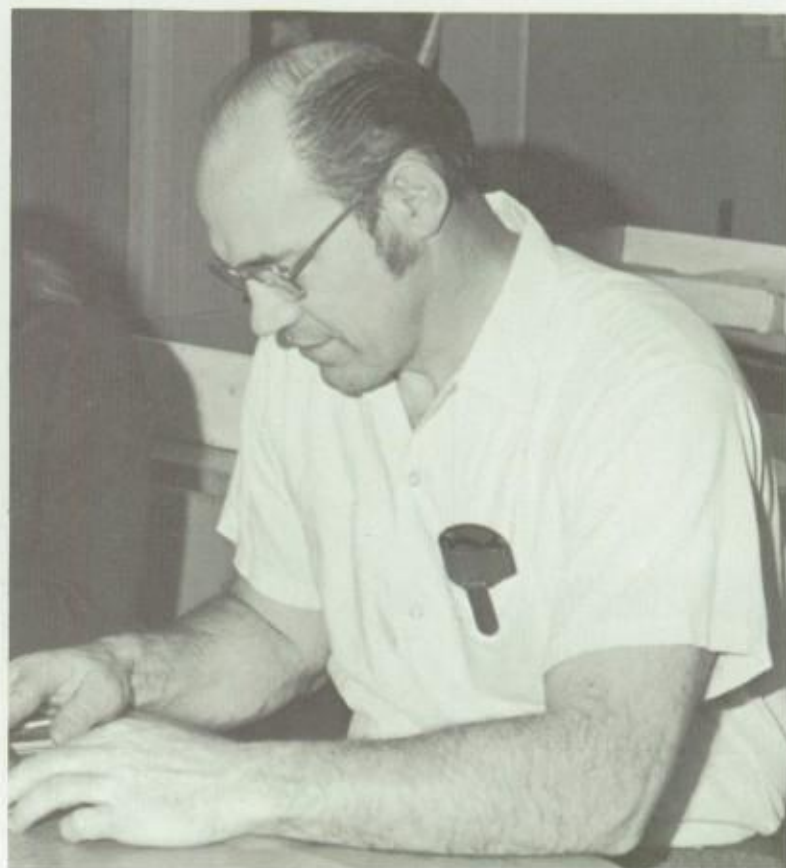

The Spectator started the school year with misfortune, but it finished the year as good as before. The editor was Karen Feridun who received advice from Miss Crone. The rest of the staff consisted of writers, photographers, and typists.

WILSONIAN

The 1973 WILSONIAN was under the supervision of Mr. Wealand and Mr. Boyer. The staff consisted of volunteer seniors willing to give up Monday nights.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen's entry for homecoming this year was Lisa Zondlo and her escort, Chris Noble.

After becoming a sophomore, it is the first year they can participate in varsity sports. Lucky for us because sometimes they are as good as or better than their elders.

SOPHOMORES

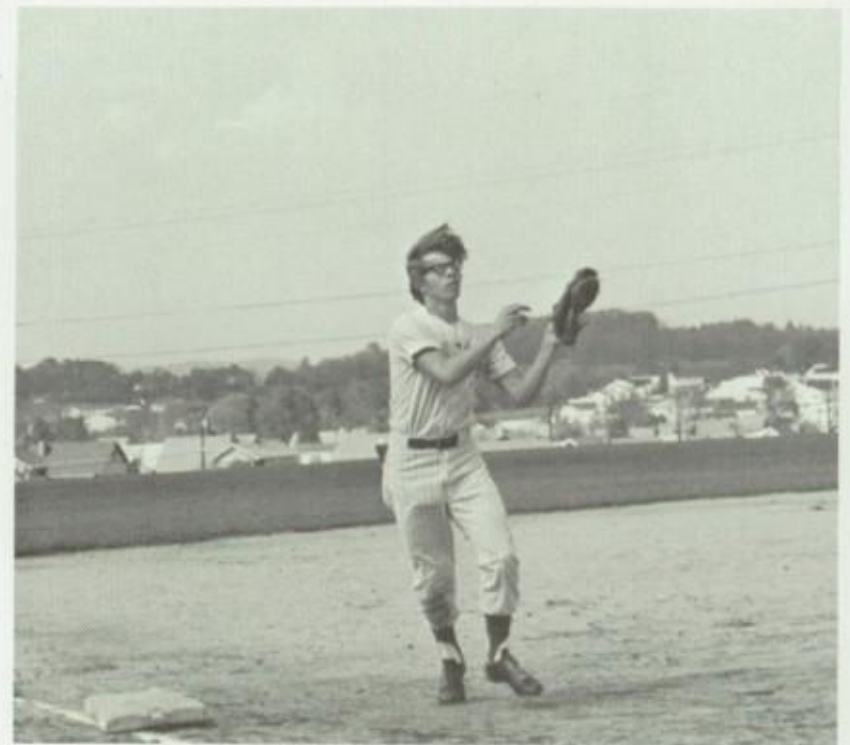

An important peak in the sophomore year is selecting a class ring. It is a tough choice because of the different styles and colors available.

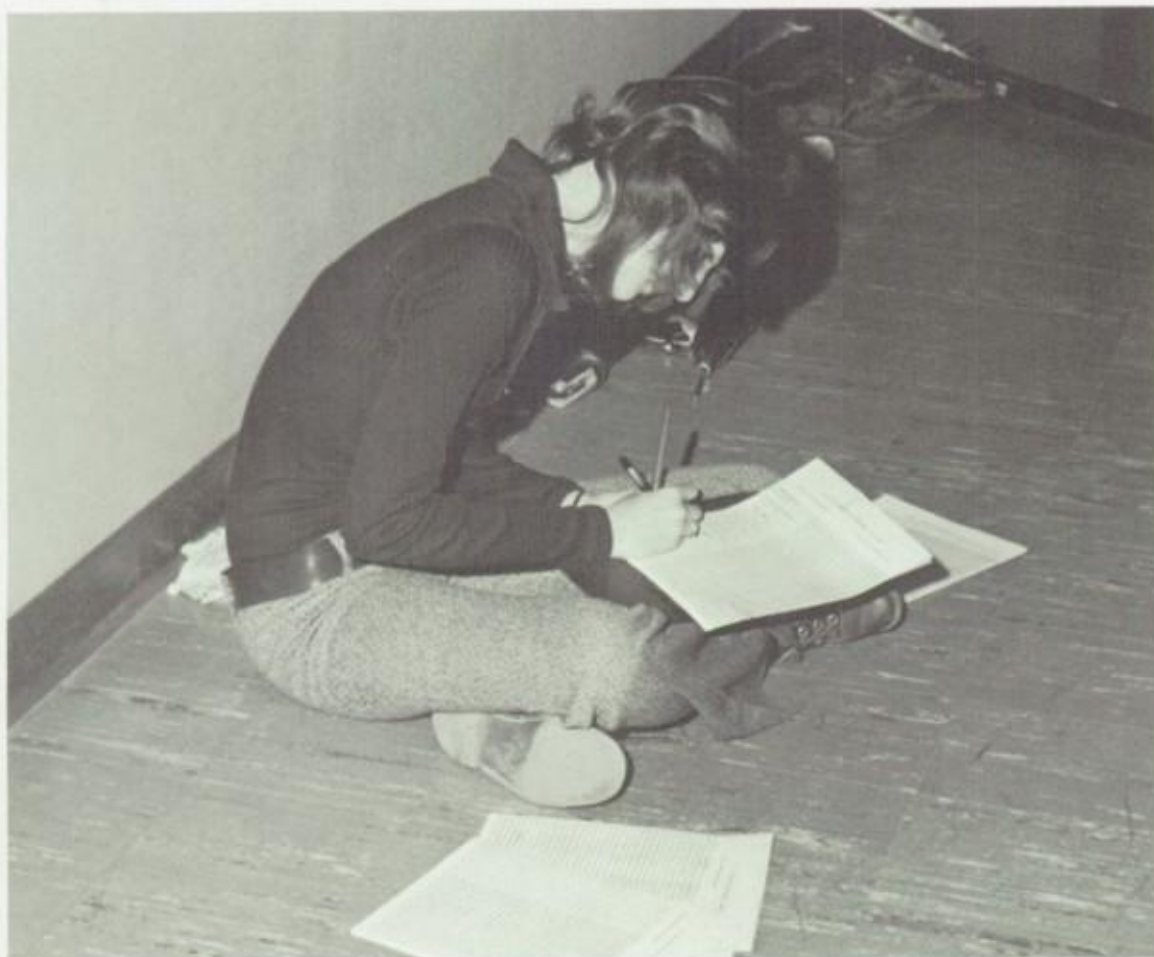

One of the joys of being a sophomore is Biology Lab. The sweet perfume of formaldehyde and the art of using a 5-H pencil are memories never forgotten.

The Sophomores participated in many things. Some of these were cheerleading, Homecoming, and academics.

This years Junior class officers were Mike Coleman, Robin Miller, Lisa Heck and Jan Williamson. They headed the class toward a successful prom, "Stairway to Heaven" for the Seniors, an unforgettable field trip to New York, a bobby sock rock hop and many other things. However, no one can forget the thought of becoming a senior the following year.

The Junior year was filled with Chemistry problems, Algebra II, World Cultures' maps and the New York trip. Eleventh grade is peaked by hard work and sprinkled with good times.

DEDICATION

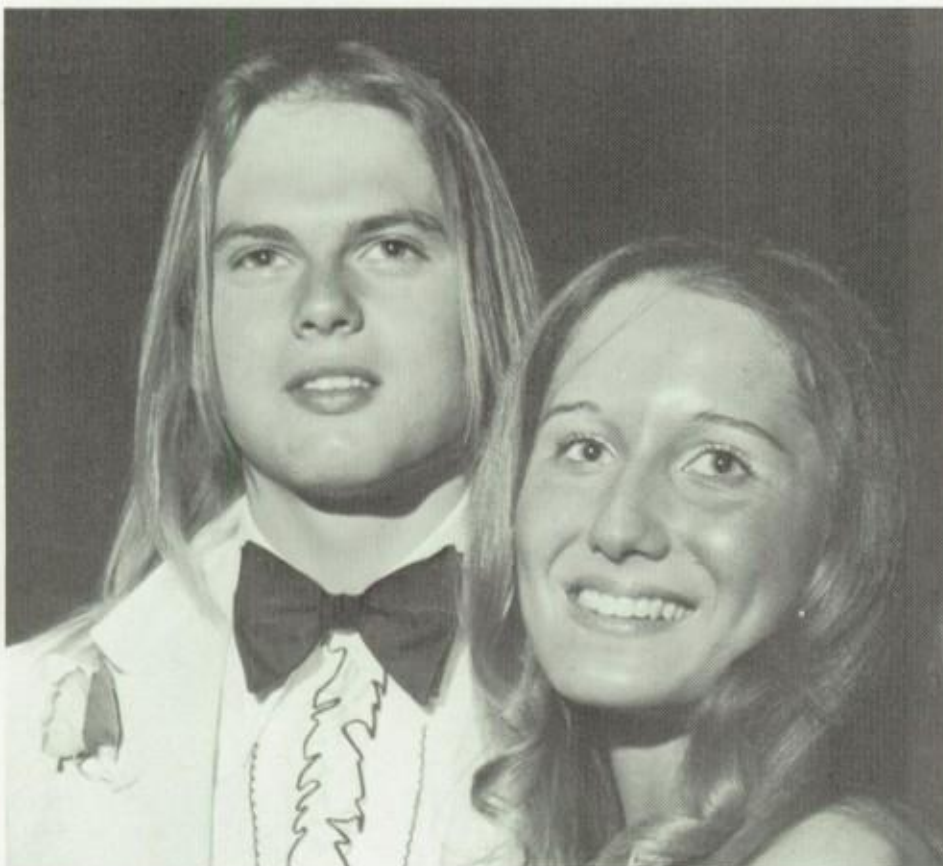

An old fool once said, "A friend in need is a pest". This type of philosophy is completely foreign to Mr. John Goss. Mr. Goss has been a true friend to the Class of '73 ever since his arrival in our Sophomore year and has remained one for the past three years. It is for this reason that we, The Class of '73, dedicated the 1973 issue of the WILSONIAN to Mr. John Goss.

STAIRWAY TO HEAVEN

Every year around the end of May the Junior Class at Wilson honors the Seniors with a Prom. This year, utilizing a very popular Led Zeppelin song, the Class of '74 transformed the gym into a "Stairway to Heaven" for the Class of '73.

CLASS OFFICERS

The Senior class officers (Paul Brooks, Rita DaDamio, Anne French and Kathy Szymanski) provided the impetus to make the Class of '73 cherish their Senior year. The activity that they will "cherish" the most will probably be the Pancake Breakfast.
